BRADLEY UNIVERSITY

THE QUIET CAMPUS

Tree-shaded walks . . . ivy-covered halls . . . the quad . . . deserted dorms . . . the phantom echoes that fill the field-house with soundless anticipation . . . all coadunating to form the quiet campus of Bradley University. Silently, expectantly, the campus waits for its complement, the students . . . who give its existence purpose . . . to be within itself the entity of all the title University connotes . . . an ideal universe in microcosm . . . safe representation from all phases of life. Innocent repose . . . a hot August afternoon . . . the quiet campus awaits the wakening that has yet to become reality in a thousand faces . . . more than faces—spirits in search of the mainstream of life. The silent composure belies the subsurface omniscience it possesses and soon will share with those who persist . . . as time marks its passage by the chimes . . . but they lack the tintinnabulation of last spring . . . for there is no one here to listen.

ENCOUNTER

Imperceptibly the sanguine silence of the campus takes on an intensity . . . the students arrive . . . quiet repose is shattered by furious flurries of activity. The first days . . . new roommates . . . unfamiliar surroundings . . . buildings that echo with seeming emptiness . . . and close relationships interrupted by the gap of summer are recaptured. Within a week that small room encompasses home . . . new acquaintances seem life-long friends. A familiar re-enactment of "boy meets girl" begins . . . the by-play in Burgess-Sisson lobby . . . feigned indifference at a jam . . . an overflow of enthusiasm at a basketball game . . . the convenient excuse of a study date. In direct proportion to the progression of the year, spheres of acquaintance increase. The expanding pattern originates in the tradition of the coffee date . . . due either to lack of chairs or multiplicity of friends . . . becoming a mammoth meeting of minds. The design enlarges . . . the ironic intimacy of a formal . . . four-square bridge marathons in the Center . . . the camaraderie of a last-minute review session in the library's glass cages . . . the ethic-jumbling, moral-renovating, sleep-stealing discussions in smoke-filled rooms. The experience that is a college education begins as the consequence of encounter.

FRAMEWORK OF TENSION

The enigmatic paradox of the University . . . a collage of forces . . . assuming a personality of its own disguised by a deceptively innocent posture. The phantasm of Fall . . . a profusion of free time . . . extended breaks over coffee and beer . . . Indian summer afternoons . . . the last game of tennis . . . a pickup football game'. . . blended by a semi-Epicurean philosophy of enjoyment. Almost unnoticeably at first . . . then with increasing intensity, the tempo rises . . . tests, papers, reports, projects . . . as the mirage of the Dean's List dissolves in permanent red ink . . . the hope destroyed of fulfilling parent's insatiable aspirations. A modern Dante's Vision vanishes in the swish of a mini-skirt . . . and the promise of perfect love fades as the Knight-Errant refuses the challenge. The three-for-two bargain rate is compounded annually . . . as freshmen learn that "personality conflict" is only a new term for selfishness . . . their insecurity hidden beneath a thin veneer of newly-acquired sophistication. For seniors "next year" becomes a venture into the world beyond Bradley Avenue. The yearly dialectic begins . . . advocating the jettison of classified ethics and the adaptation of relative morality. The questions are the same. The answers comprise the framework . . . tension.

TENSION REACTION

Those parts of college life called study, dating, and play . . . otherwise known as compensation, rationalization, and sublimation . . . the release in all of its many forms for the tension that must find an escape. Dancing in a throb-induced state of psychedelic whirl to music that sounds out all feeling . . . as the great leveler is served by the pitcher . . . and a date becomes more than just two people talking. Up for the good time . . . with gaiety, sometimes forced . . . the games people occasionally play become alternately too tame or jaded . . . as the search goes on. And all in the name of . . . that priceless degree for $1300-plus . . . a ticket to success . . . the way painfully lubricated by midnight oil . . . the single light that burns late on a Saturday night . . . marking with desperation one who never quite finishes studying. TGIF becomes a way of life for some, and for others the withdrawal from one becomes an escape of itself . . . vicious pillow skirmishes erupt into guerilla warfare . . . and "what's your problem?" becomes a greeting rather than a legitimate question. The answer . . . if it can be transcribed into words . . . is understanding.

WELCOMETO THE HILLTOP

The avowed purpose of the carefully-wrought yearbook . . . to preserve memories . . . and as any "good" book . . . to withstand the test of time. This was our purpose . . . and meaning is here for those who seek it. There are the typical yearbook shots . . . capturing the essence of college life . . . familiar to many . . . but re-experienced and re-questioned every year. The myriad feelings . . . the threads of emotion . . . combine to blend the experience of four years . . . into that entity . . . socially acceptable . . . financially advisable . . . a college education. The meaning we present goes beyond the camera . . . beyond the written word . . . beyond Bradley's immediate aims of practicality. For us it is so personal that the effort to materialize abstract emotion evokes concentration, even as the administration, faculty and students concentrate . . . pain, as they feel and cause pain . . . and love, as they also love. For this is "the impossible dream" . . . the story of all that was and could have been . . . it is idealism and growth . . . cynicism and despair . . . an attempt to clutch at life. We have changed through the expression of the Story . . . as all students change through the experience of it. Viewed in retrospect the Story conforms to a pattern . . . symbolized in our cover design. A pattern of expansion . . . as the individual expands in four years' time. A pattern of encounter . . . as the student encounters personalities, ideals and ideas. A differentiated pattern . . . as experience acquires multiformity. A unifying pattern of growth from which an individual emerges . . . with greater insight . . . extended interests . . . heightened sensitivity . . . a college graduate ready to leave the protective isolation of the campus. It's called ANAGA . . . Welcome to the Hilltop.

I am . . . a signer of last name, first name, middle initial . . . a pre-oriented and registered member . . . an unpacker . . . a mailbox watcher . . . a person with a new roommate . . . I AM A FRESHMAN.

I am . . . a wise fool . . . a beer drinker . . . a hand holder . . . a disdainer of socks and haircuts . . . a first late night taker . . . a requirement filler . . . a class cutter . . . I AM A SOPHOMORE.

I am . . . an upperclassman . . . an activities joiner . . . a would-be wheel . . . a touch of sophistication with the now-not-so-rough edges . . . an idealist without illusion . . . I AM A JUNIOR.

I am ... a hopeful degree ... a worrier ... a $15,000 investment ... a burner of mid-night oil ... a job seeker ... a leader ... a "serious dater" ... a four year dream come true ... I AM A SENIOR.

REGISTRATION THEME: AUTOMONY PRESERVED

Registration . . . the one day that disrupts two weeks of complacency . . . long lines form in front of Bradley Hall . . . awaiting a glimpse of the Big Board . . . delineated into a red, green, and blue kaleidoscope. Students gloomily shuffle in and ask if any classes are open . . . ultimately composing a debilitated and chronologically maladjusted schedule . . . following the lines past signs that imperiate: EVERYONE MUST STOP HERE! Finally to the Activities Fair . . . with multi-interested groups demanding time, money, and in some cases, "soul" . . . processed, packaged, and validated polaroid I.D. cards . . . ready to begin another semester.

Which one: "Business and Economic Statistics" or "Theory and Practice of Intelligence in International Affairs?"

Special assistance is beneficial and infinitely more productive.

Mute contemplation of a blurry screen and the frustration of closed classes mark an integral part of registration.

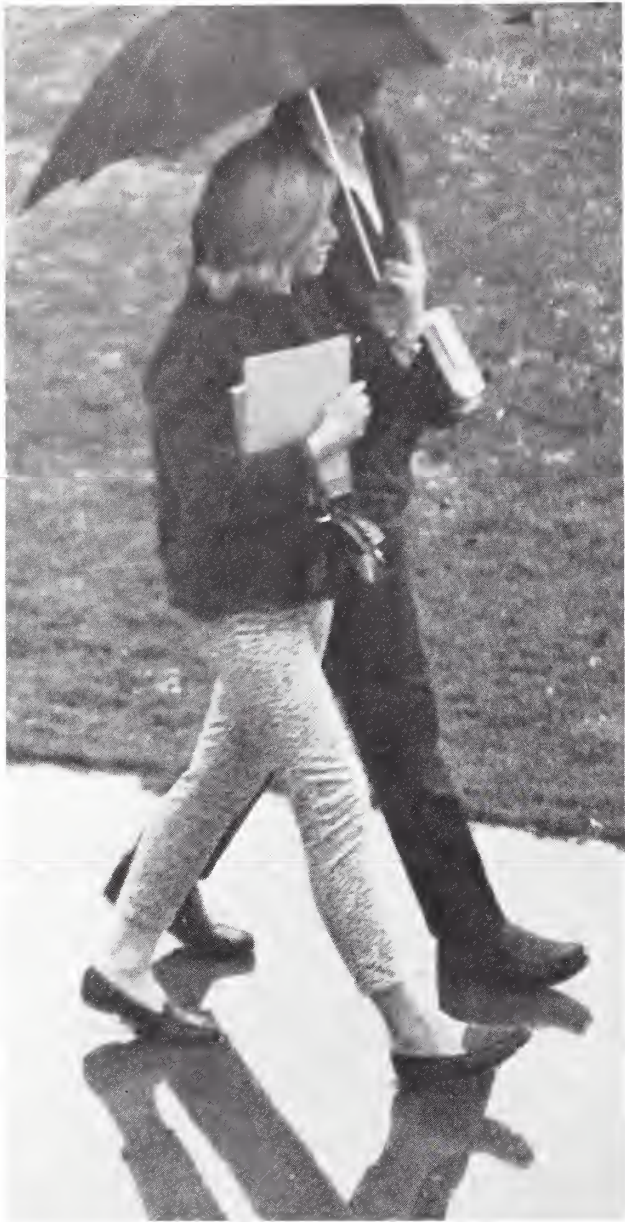

Some people intimate that the entire university is a front for the prosperous bookstore.

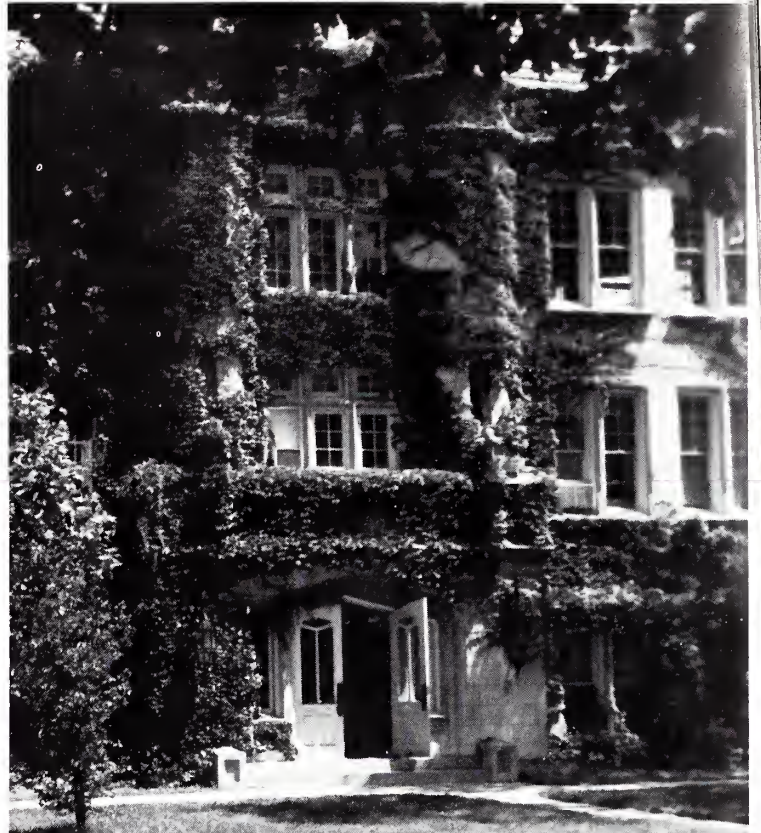

SDS drafts students with the challenge of written combat.

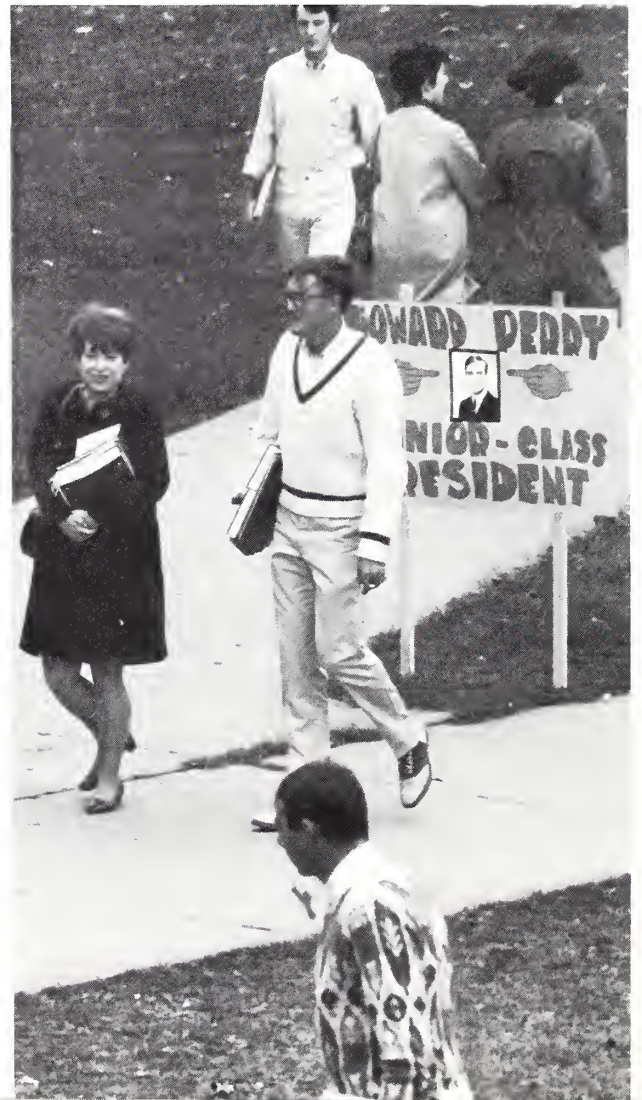

The young man with a bumbershoot becomes more than just someone to talk with on the way to class.

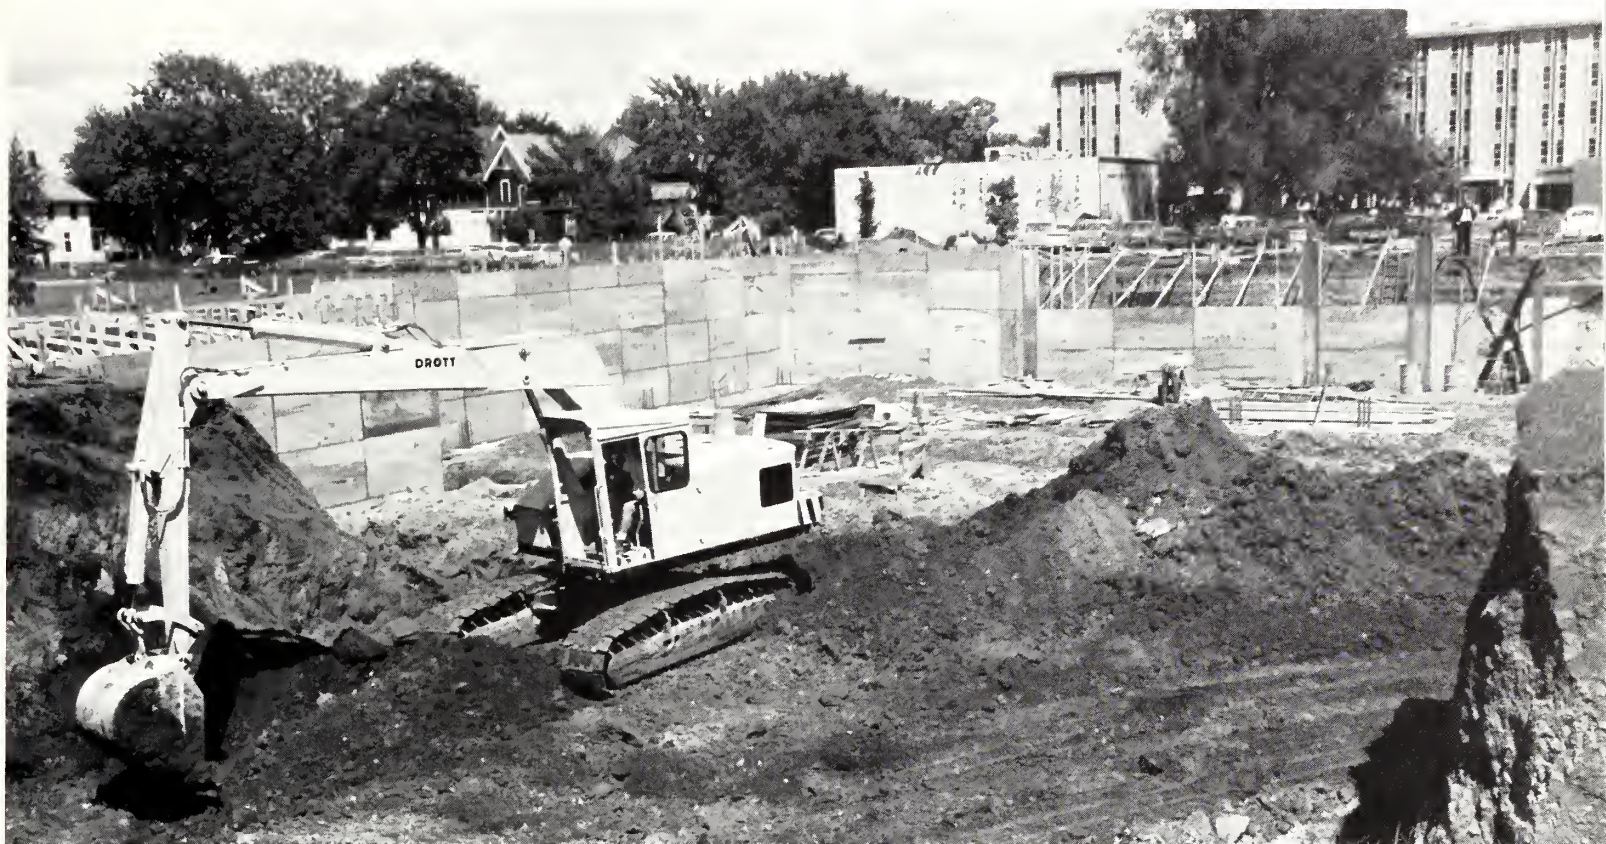

Hewitt Hall stands waiting . . .

Students walk across campus discussing the last class and the upcoming election.

Construction commences on Olin Hall of Science.

THE KNOWLEDGE SOUGHT AWAITS DISCOVERY

The "real" reason we are here . . . the self discipline of eight o'clocks . . . the quick question "did you get the" and "but he said" while hurrying on to the next hour . . . as Olin Hall continues to grow with a planned confusion seemingly oblivious to its surroundings . . . and the rain, the change from day to night, and the passing seasons provide only a backdrop for—classes.

Si O<sub>2</sub> paraphernalia . . . chemists' companions.

Creatures from biology lab await their contributions to science.

"Do not fold, bend or mutilate" is the motto of every dedicated computer programmer.

Once cast, never to be changed.

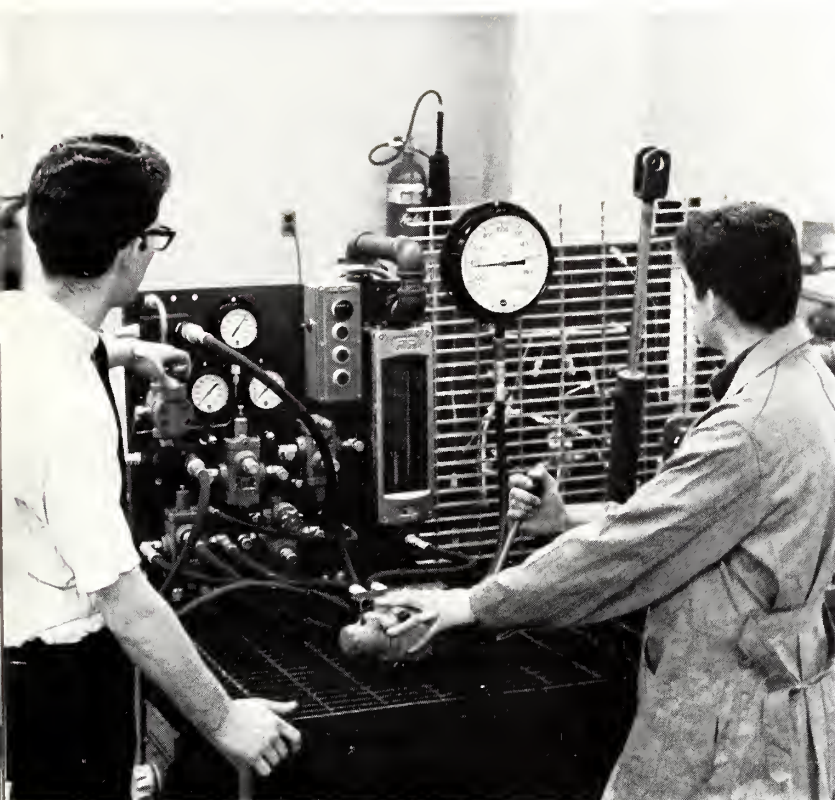

A face of cold clay mirrors the student who fashioned it.

Reading clinic helps students increase comprehension as they gain greater speed.

Fluid lab workers fasten their gazes on fluctuating gauges.

PATTERNS OF INSPIRATION

The method of their madness . . . patterns of scholarship developed with motivation—self-induced or expedient. Inspired by the painful expression on a little boy's face . . . the beauty of creation . . . the structured aesthetics of enumeration . . . the influx and efflux of hydrodynamics . . .

A smoky atmosphere clears the mind.

Students in the stacks.

The Speech Therapy Clinic provides an invaluable service to area children.

CLASSES . . . FRAMEWORK OF EDUCATION

The framework of a college education . . . provided by "the 25% of learning that takes place in the classroom."

The principles applied so practically . . .
the theories idealistically expounded, ultimately to be interpreted as desired . . .
the search for elusive creativity, culminating when least expected . . .

far into the night or while standing in the dinner line . . .

All reaching out for contemporaneous approval that might indicate potential . . .
hope for future competence . . .
or another chance to make grades.

Miss Nita Sunderland's "Birds of Prey," commissioned by the Class of 1967.

Bradley's television studio, seemingly a labyrinth of buttons and wires, provides area schools with ETV facilities.

Long a symbol for the School of Art, crumbling Siepert Hall suggests images of modern collage in the pop-art tradition.

Every band performance requires endless hours of practice.

A PHENOMENAL STORY

The real reason we are here . . . threads of existence inextricably entwined . . . woven into the phenomenon of college life . . . a dialectic . . . an amalgam . . . the other 75% . . . forming a stream of days and nights which merge into one year . . . four years . . . The Story . . . style and content inseparable . . . symbolized in the mythologically-inspired "Birds of Prey." Like man, they alter their concept of relationships when viewed in shifting perspective.

"Your sentence—sing 'Hail Red and White'—or else . . ."

"But we don't know it . . ."

HOMECOMING 1967 . . . AROUND THE WORLD WITHOUT RESERVATION

The bonfire blazes to the theme of "good riddance green beanies, good luck Bradley Braves."

Dudley Do-Right and his fearless mounties struggle to save Nell from the Huskies and capture second place in  $\Sigma K$ ,  $\Theta \Xi$ , and  $\Sigma N$ 's skit.

Homecoming begins . . . a walking snake dance to Bradley Park . . . rat court demonstrating the democratic process? . . . the bonfire that wouldn't start with a whimper, but began with a gas-induced bang . . . freshman beanie (had one been seen in weeks?) burning and the jam . . . stunt show rehearsals finally reaching the panic stage, strutting their brief 12 minutes, and then are heard no more . . . ending with Dean Tucker crowning Queen Patti.

Ma and Pa help the Brave Generation defeat the Huskie Hippies to win Stunt Show for  $\pi B \phi$ ,  $K \Delta P$ , and  $O C M A$ .

Stunt Show climaxes as Dean of Students, Leslie Tucker, crowns Patti Andres, Homecoming Queen.

$Z B T$ ,  $\Gamma \Sigma \phi$ ,  $\phi K T$  strike it rich in the Wild West, galloping back in time for Homecoming.

Delta Upsilon earns Sweepstakes and first in the Frat Division with its around the world house dec.

An over-grown Swiss Cuckoo pecks the Huskies and wins a sorority first for Sigma Kappa.

A Chi Omega engineer puts the finishing touches on their house dec construction project.

Neither rain, sleet, snow, nor darkness of night prevent Theta Chi's from working on house dec.

HOUSE DECS MEET SOGGY END AS DU WINS SWEEPSTAKES

Sigma Nu's "jolly green Bradley Brave" looks forward to canning some Huskies.

Lovelace and Wyckoff go "Up, Up and Away" with women's dorm first.

Delta Upsilon, Sigma Kappa, University Hall, and Wyckoff-Lovelace Halls were winners . . . despite the rain . . . with Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Gamma Phi Beta, and Off Campus Men's Association-Heitz Hall as the runners-up . . . and the crepe paper stored away until 'next year' . . .

University Hall takes first-place honors two years in a row in the Other Men's Division.

The Letterman create their own special mood, magic, and melody in concert.

THE OLD AND THE NEW BLENDED IN THAT 'LETTERMEN TOUCH'

The well attended (Yom what?) Lettermen . . .
cadging, carolling, cajoling the audience, giving their touch to the old . . .
buffoning the new . . . singing along . . .
ending with a standing ovation to . . .
'I Believe' . . .

Letterman Jim Pike solos in one of the more thoughtful moments of the evening.

The contract called for one free meal in the dorm!

Bradley Braves fight valiantly to turn the Huskies' tide.

AND THESE THINGS WERE HOMECOMING ...

Bobby Vee sings "Come Back When You Grow Up Girl" for the dancers at the Père Marquette.

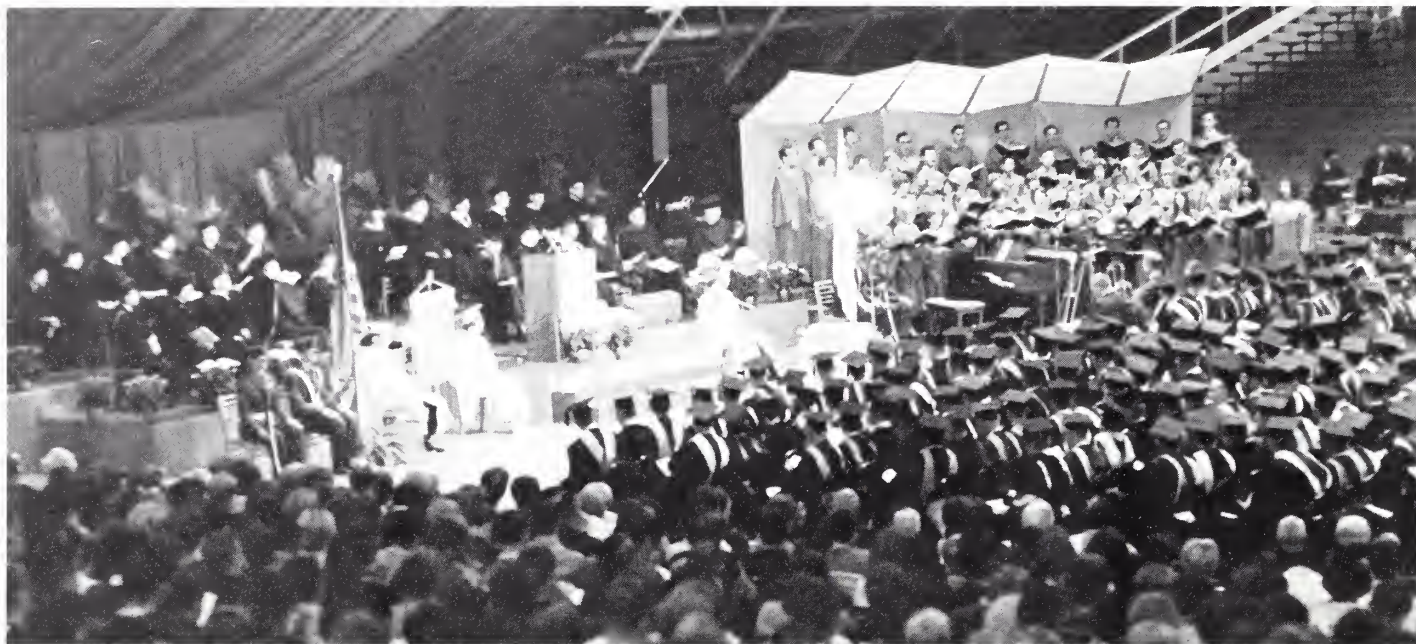

Alums and the game ... with the unsuccessful third quarter rally (for those who stayed) ...

Queen Patti all smiles and waves throughout her royal half-time ride ... the dance with Bobby Vee and the Midnight Hours ... that were extended to 3 a.m.

The smiles, the waves, and the charm of Queen Patti Andres highlighted the football game.

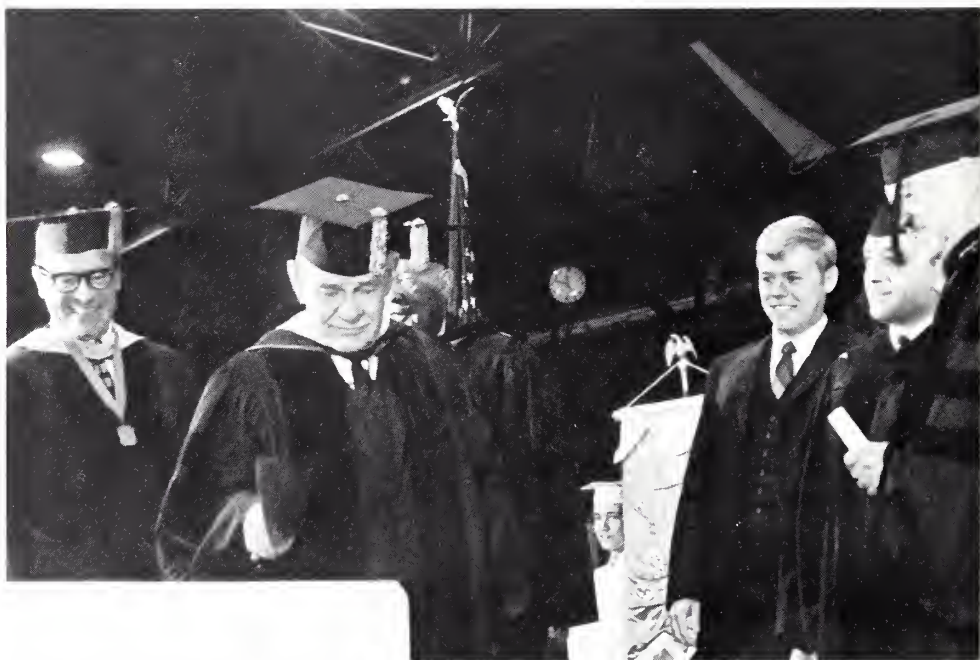

The Bradley Chorale voices "Sweet Freedom's Song" at Convocation exercises.

BRADLEY'S 71st FOUNDER'S DAY CONVOCATION

Harold W. Lynch, Honorary Trustee of Bradley University, presents the main address at Founder's Day Convocation.

Founder's Day Convocation . . . "following the custom of 70 years" . . . Harold W. Lynch recalls Bradley's first decade . . . Dr. Sawyer receives the Putnam Award . . . Charles L. Horn and James O. Wynn participate in the symbolic cornerstone laying of new Olin Hall of Science . . . the "Ugly Student" raised its head and embarrassed those respectful enough to sit silently.

James O. Wynn, Vice President of the Olin Foundation, concludes the program with the symbolic cornerstone ceremony.

DADS' DAY ... THE BRAVES WIN

Bradley Dads' Day ... our thanks to those who pay the bills ... banquets and luncheons ... Dad of the Year Bernard Rovner wears the traditional headdress ... a football victory ... open house at residences ... the day is gone and as the fathers leave, the blue jeans come out from the back of the closet.

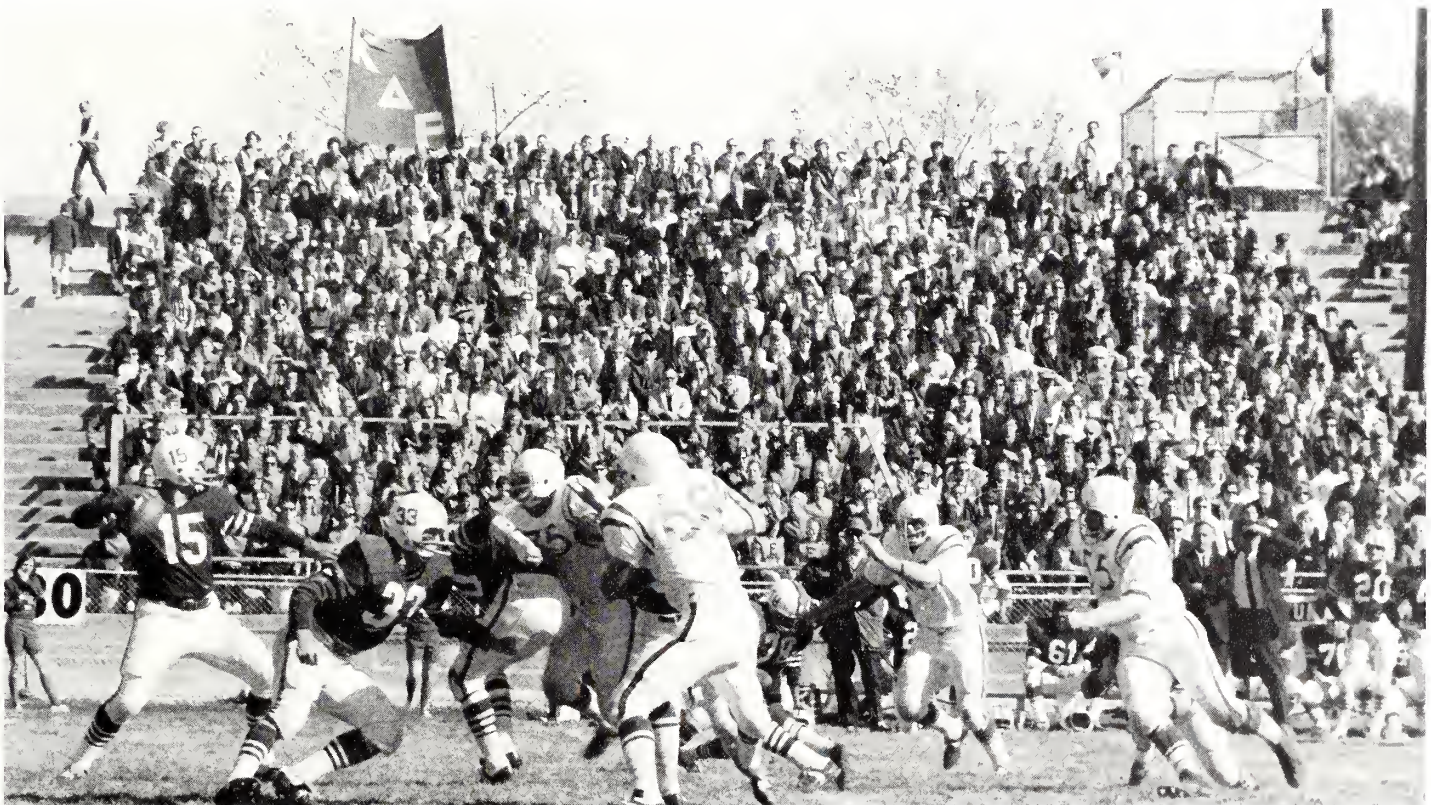

President Van Arsdale presents Dads' Association awards to Elmer A. Miller, Leo Ovson, and Jack Slavitt.

Mr. Bernard Rovner becomes Bradley Dad of the Year as he receives the headdress from President Talman W. Van Arsdale, as Arthur Gilinsky, last year's recipient, looks on.

Bradley Dads watch the Braves strangle the Eastern Illinois Leathernecks.

Bob Foster, Head Page; Mary Fasulo, Time Keeper; Pete Dolezal, Pres.; Jeanne Krause, Sec. Gen.; Terry James, Under Sec. Gen.; Mr. John Howard, Parliamentarian and Advisor.

MODEL U.N. REVIEWS INTERNATIONAL ISSUES

Member countries raise serious questions of world diplomacy.

A model United Nations . . . discussion, debate, a beginning toward the understanding of problems we will inherit tomorrow . . . study for background to become, for a short time, the delegate from another country . . . seek, feel, learn, appreciate, and ultimately . . . understand . . . with a desire to be prepared when our time comes.

Representatives ponder the issues posed.

ODK IN THE COLD

ODK Leadership Conference . . . bringing together all phases of campus executive-ship . . . faculty, administrators, and the varying sizes of cogs and wheels that make and are a university, the students . . . in an all encompassing dialectic that has as a purpose the solving of problems and the development of leadership and loyalty . . . accomplished through mutual knowledge, understanding, and discussion of the problems that construe the day to day phenomenon that is . . . Bradley University.

The congregation of leaders listens to a panel discussion.

Dean Leslie H. Tucker leads one of the many discussion groups.

Though cold and tired, delegates continue deliberation.

"Me, my knapsack, and I."

Mr. Henry Vanderheyden, Bradley speech teacher, supervises tabulation of the tournament's 1,000 participants.

A visitor's intensity receives varied reactions at the banquet.

BU HOSTS A VERBAL BATTLE

The nation's largest speech tournament . . . a thousand students from 75 colleges infiltrating every campus building . . . resolving that the federal government "should . . ." The tense Awards Ceremony . . . the winner of the day . . . the University of Iowa . . . with a typically good showing from Bradley . . . as the tired-tongued tournamenters finally head home.

Bradley speech students assemble packets for the competition.

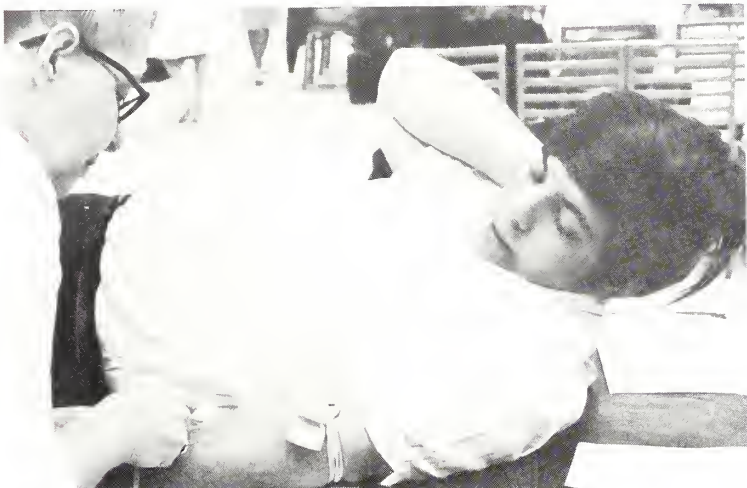

"That's me!"

"Crazy!"

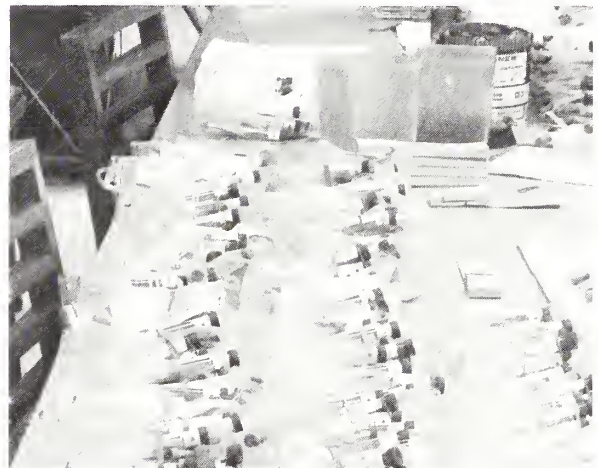

"Cool it!"

FREELY GIVEN

The blood drive . . . nervous . . . classification asking "In the last year have you had . . ."

Damp palms awaiting the next step . . . suddenly the wait is over, then . . .

The ordeal is through as quickly as it began, as the nurse leads the way to the table with cookies and sandwiches and final instructions of "Wait 15 minutes before . . ."

Awaiting the student's "young" blood.

"Name, age, weight, height, sign here please."

Peoria dressed in winter white is a welcome change from the traditional garb of muddy rain.

Mustang Santa rides again.

SOUNDS AND SCENES OF WINTER

Winter and snow . . . not always synonymous. But this year . . . a slushy walk to class . . . football games in the snow-filled quad . . . "wiping-out" on a patch of ice . . . Christmas parties with Chanukah trees . . . as Somebody up there shook the paperweight.

Christmas is a new experience for some . . .

Student Center "still life."

Snow "among" the trees.

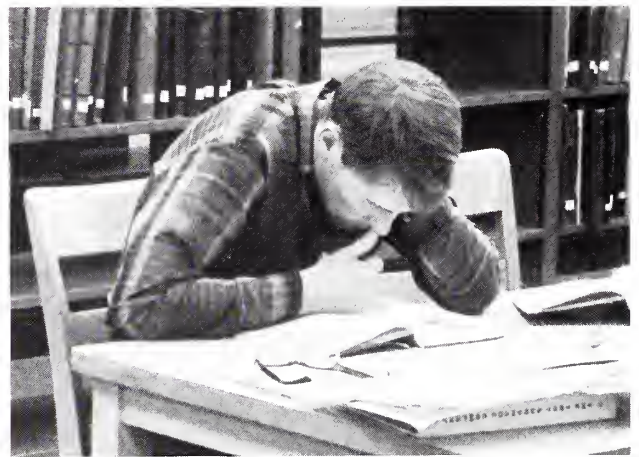

Students exchange a semester of indolence for a week of imprisonment in their 3 x 5 cells.

"THE QUICK AND THE . . ."

The days of FINAL reckoning . . . the price paid for procrastination . . . eyes held wide by dexes . . . as tension builds in moments of hasty preparation and elaborate study plans attempt to make up in hours what was lost in days. The library is suddenly overwhelmed by the search for solitude . . . as instructors cancel office hours to avoid 12th hour pleas. When it is over . . . COLLAPSE, too weary for the long anticipated celebration and then . . .

Deep concentration leaves a student oblivious to his surroundings.

Only one more all-nighter!

BREAK THRU . . . GIVE UP . . . GET OUT . . .

Semester break . . . a temporary respite means home, to look for that summer job or just relax under sunny skies from La Jolla to Bimini . . . "Forgetting to remember to forget" while beyond the short space of time outside of time . . . the hesitating rush toward the oncoming shadow of registration and second semester . . .

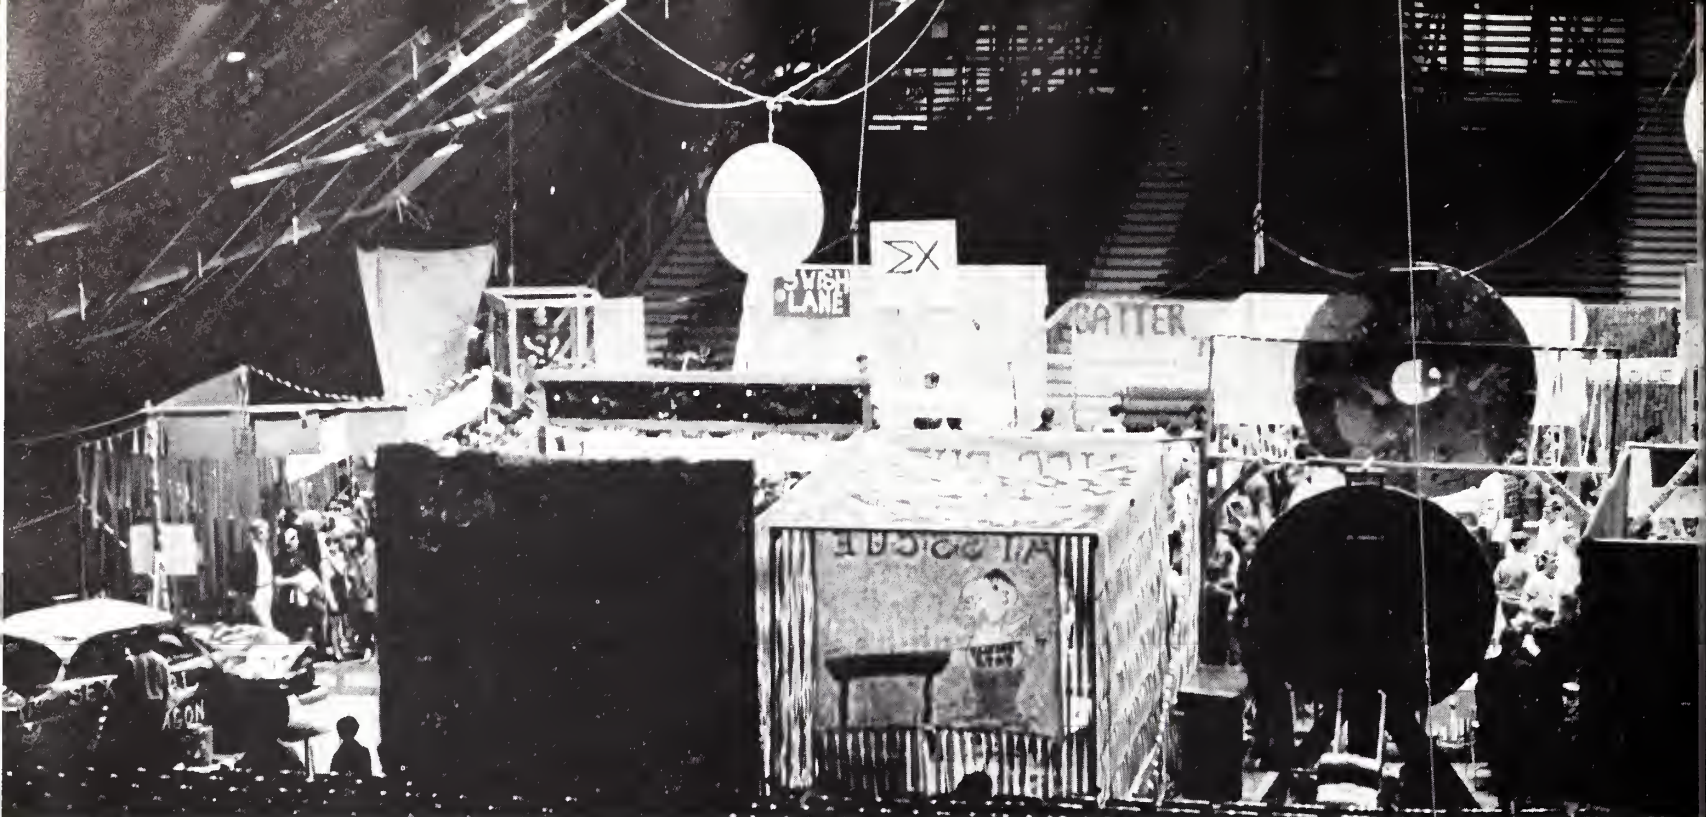

"Flight of the Phoenix"

Just send their mail . . .

CAMPUS CARNIVAL FEATURES

Interested in the child's point of view, an interviewer invites a younger participant's reactions to Campus Carnival.

HILARITY FOR CHARITY

"Hilarity for Charity" . . . as Midway Madness saw alpha's, balloons, clowns, and drenched deans through zeta . . . all adding their part to the $6,500 collected for charity . . . to local to national to international . . . as APO, SDT, and ZBT presented the best booths . . . Mary Ann Cochran and John Antonecchia were crowned Queen Charity and King Hilarity.

Merrymaking sets the theme for a gay carnival atmosphere.

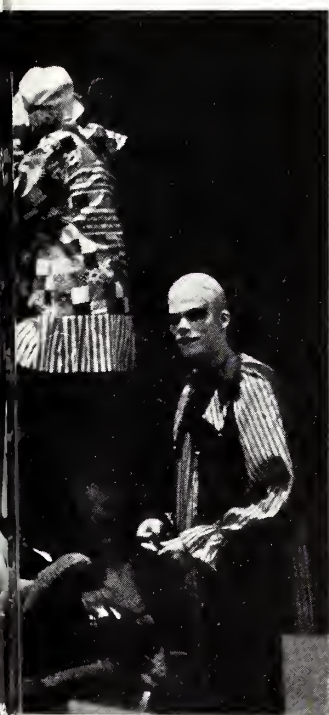

"... where she stops, nobody knows.

Lady-in-waiting for a toss of the ring.

Dear Abby...

A close shave is the object at "Take It ALL Off" booth.

ASN prays this ball doesn't find its mark.

STUDENT GAIETY BENEFITS WORLD WIDE CHARITIES

College men relive their younger days at a small scale Grand Prix.

BOOTHS RAISE $6500 IN TWO NIGHT STAND

The Campus Carnival broke last year's record for money collected as booths showed imaginative names such as Williams' Hall's "Take It ALL Off", and DU's "Flip the Bird." Nearly all organizations on campus were represented as 32 booths filled the fieldhouse . . . turned . . . midway.

It's a "dead ringer"!

realization!

Buchwald demonstrates a point.

Nationally syndicated columnist, Art Buchwald, talks with students after his Lecture Arts performance.

Art Buchwald . . . tells of every young man's dream . . . to live in Paris . . . filling his inside-Washington-straight, with the most recent in political barbs . . . cracking wise in his internationally famous manner of simplification . . .

Harry Golden returns to Bradley . . .

Dr. Philip Crane returns from a new post at Westminster Academy.

LECTURE ARTS PRESENTS HUMOR, WIT AND COMMON SENSE

Crane speaks with typical reserved emphasis.

and somehow we remember when.

The Lecture Arts Series begins
... Dr. Philip Crane ... former BU prof
... aptly asks "Education for What?" A
Horace Mann man himself ... he advocates Ten Commandments, a return to traditional values ... since "There is no monstrous century like the Twentieth Century."

Harry Golden ... protagonist of a hundred battles ... in civil rights, journalism, against prejudice ... understanding that Only In America can "the miracle of human kindness" be brought about ... the intimate of presidents, his way with words lampoons us into social awareness ... and ultimately he makes us Enjoy, Enjoy.

PRECEDENTIAL PRESIDENTIAL PRESS

Pierre Salinger . . . newspaperman turned youngest ex-senator turned corporation president
. . . sounding like a candidate
. . . with criticism, wit, and memories of the fallen leader he served
. . . and tales of managing the news of the Great Hike.

Among the new breed of American politicians.

"In defense of an open society."

To Salinger, Kennedy was the ideal of excellence in American government.

A POET'S INSPIRATION

Poet in residence . . . Strange Element in English
 . . . Frost authority . . . and a new room at the library
 . . . Dr. Daniel W. Smythe. With acceptance lists in the thousands . . . the defender and spokesman for a way of life . . . the traditionalist.

Among Dr. Smythe's literary collection is his recollection of conversation Robert Frost Speaks Frost photographs and original manuscripts contribute to a quiet corner of culture.

THE FOUR SEASONS...

Tom DeVito, Joe Long, Frankie Valli

Four Seasons . . . each with a separate persuasion that blends into the harmony of a SUPERB sound. "To Give" was their purpose and they were prolific . . . adding turtle-necked, double-breasted sophistication to rock, for the few moments of melodic reign . . .

Frankie Valli

Tom DeVito

Bob Gaudio, Joe Long

"COURTESANS AND EUNUCHS, VIRGINS AND TUNICS"

From overture to act drop and exposition to finale, the promise of the opening number was fulfilled in "Something delicious, something suspicious, something for everyone, a comedy tonight." The proteans doubled in brass playing parts from soldiers to eunuchs while the amply-endowed courtesans set back the building of Rome not just a few days.

Mark Trask plays the unwilling virgin to Walter's philandering Senex as the plot develops.

A FUNNY THING HAPPENED ON THE WAY TO THE FORUM

"That Dirty Old Man" Fred Walter plays a W.C. Fieldian Senex.

THEATRE OF PROJECTION

R.U.R., the computerized abbreviation of the title itself epitomizing the soma-perfect, unjoy-oblivion envisioned by Karel Copeck in 1921 and adapted by Collins J. Bell for the Bradley theatre. The novel use of TV to convey action brought a sense of immediacy to the idea of a "1984-Brave New World" type takeover . . . theatre of extension that projects today's sleepwalking into the nightmare of tomorrow.

Graduate Student Fred Walter plays the cold, selfish Dr. Gall.

BU-ID # 71135 (Diane Reporto) convinces John Tabbert that she really is a robot.

To make their control complete, two robots kill the last man on earth.

Dr. Collins J. Bell

"A QUIET EVENING WITH GEORGE AND MARTHA"

"Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" Virginia Woolf, Virginia Woolf . . . and Lydia Moss undoubtedly would have been shocked . . . as the message comes through the off color medium and conflict spans the real world and the verbalizing make-believe on stage . . . in a synoptical characterization by Edward Albee of life as it deteriorates in efforts at communication . . .

"Honey . . ."

George: For Gosh sakes, Martha, it's 2 am . . .

Martha: Oh, George!

George: Well, I'm sorry, but . . .
Martha: (interrupting) What a cluck!

Claudius, Gertrude, and Laertes play dead.

SHAKESPEARE BY ARMOUR AND KOPERSKI

The Bard . . . as liberally misinterpreted by Richard Armour and staged by Ronald Koperski, in the University's first Readers Theatre . . . and Stratford might be IN the Avon had it witnessed the chaotic punnery that transpired with the slip of a well-edited wit . . . and as English majors cringe at the desecration, the ponderous evolves to pandering . . . and some conclude that they prefer "Twisted Tales" to Shakespeare.

The narrators: Jeff Bogart, Debby Pitcher, Cliff Shell.

"Romeo, Romeo, wherefore art thou?"

Abby doth portray a "Thweet" Macbeth.

"See no evil; hear no evil; speak no evil."

LOVE AND WAR RECLASSIFIED

Sex, then as now, is a going concern . . . and when it went it ended the war. Graduate student Fred Walter adapted Aristophanes' classic redefining the timeless subjects of love and war. While today we carry signs, the older Greeks advocated a different method . . . and conversation is the order of the business . . . as the classics teach a lesson.

Leah Sloane as Lysistrata leads an oath of abstinence.

"I'm just not in the mood!"

THE ROYAL JUDGEMENT

Mary Stuart . . . the barbed femininity of a queen in a quandary . . . righteousness becomes irrelevant in Friedrich Schiller's tragedy. Leslie Linstromberg as the Virgin Queen "trampling on the laws of nations" . . . Mary portrayed with pathos by Cynthia Herman . . . the inevitable end by the feeble plots of Leicester (Jerry McGuire) . . . the bitterly eloquent "orator" Sir William Burleigh (Bill Scarpaci) . . . and compassion vacillates.

Mary Stuart (Cynthia Herman) makes her last confession.

Bill Scarpaci intrigues in his role as Sir William Burleigh.

The Virgin Queen Elizabeth in the person of Leslie Linstromberg.

PAN-FRA HIGHLIGHTS MOM'S DAY ACTIVITIES

Bradley Mothers' Day . . . anathema to Phillip Wylie . . . with problems arising in trying to attend a luncheon, practice Pan-Fra, and spend some time with the family . . . self-conducted tours with echoes of "This is Bradley Hall and that is . . ." Bradley Mom, Mrs. Robert E. Coleman of Galesburg presiding over the day's activities . . . as tornado warnings threw parents and students together en masse in basements across the campus.

Tours of the campus are a common sight on Mom's Day.

A plaque is presented to Mrs. Robert E. Coleman as 1967 Bradley Mom.

The Gamma Phi Betas sing their way to a 2nd place Pan-Fra win, providing entertainment for the Moms in the audience.

The climax of Convocation—the unveiling of the architectural sketch of Olin Hall.

Olin Foundation President, Charles L. Horn, addresses the student body.

OLIN FOUNDATION PRESENTS GRANT FOR NEW SCIENCE HALL

Convocation . . . Charles L. Horn, president, and James O. Wynn, vice president of the Olin Foundation . . . present the largest grant in Bradley history . . . and the first pictures of the new Olin Hall of Science . . . $2.5 million for physics, chemistry, and biology . . . with projected completion date of Fall, 1968 . . . and Bradley continues to grow.

GRADUATION AND HONORS DAY CULMINATE THE YEAR

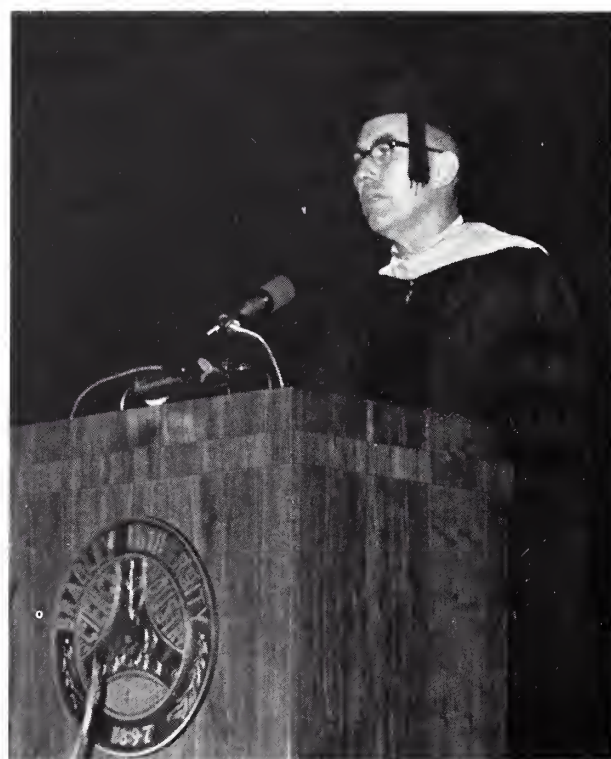

Dr. E. R. Kuchel awards Gregory Theus the Jack R. Zalke Memorial Trophy for the highest-ranking  $\Phi\Gamma\Sigma$  active graduate.

Dean Orville Nothdurft and Dean Wilbur Grimm award diplomas.

Graduation and Honors Day . . . the endless procession of academic gowns with emblazoned mantles . . . the presentation of degrees and awards . . . the time for trite speeches . . . and the seniors, by now alternately tired, happy, relieved, broke . . . spotlighting those who have excelled in academia . . . and in a few short minutes, four years end.

Dr. Robert E. Walters, recipient of the 1966 Putnam Award, speaks at Honors Day.

THERE'S ONLY ONE DOUG McDONNELL ...AND BRADLEY KNOWS IT.

Education is not what happens to thousands of students. Education is what happens to one individual . . . like Doug McDonnell. Bradley knows this.

Individual attention to Doug's college career starts at Bradley with his three-day summer orientation program prior to fall classes. Doug and his parents attend . . . talk to counselors and discuss his academic program. During these three days Doug completes testing and pre-registration well ahead of the usual September rush.

Throughout his years at Bradley, Doug always has access to skilled counsel. Bradley's Office of Special Services maintains nine counselors to keep the communication lines open to students at all times. And, as graduation approaches, Bradley's placement program gives Doug the information and opportunities he needs for a wise career choice.

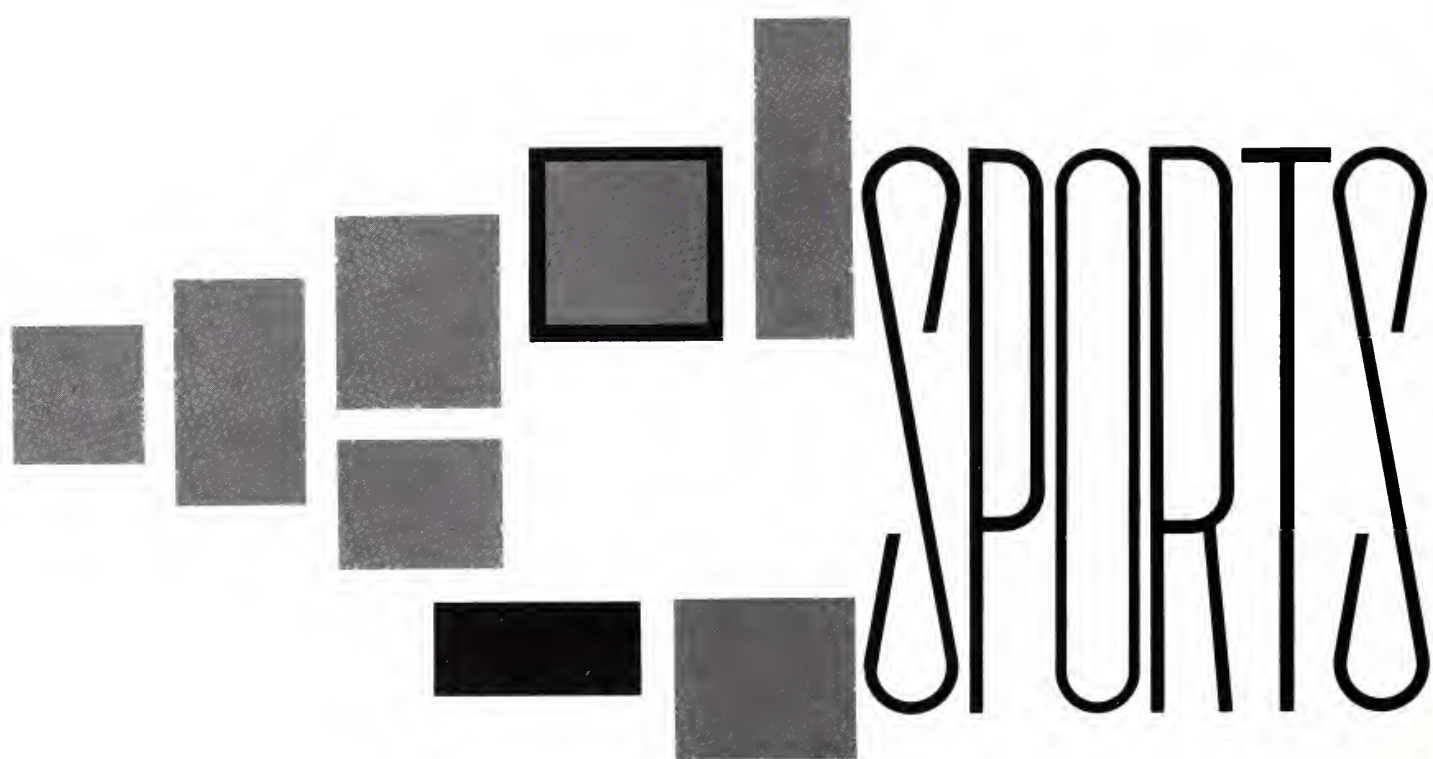

Are you a Doug McDonnell? Or do you know one? Tell him about Bradley, where individual attention makes a big difference.

THE 1967 FOOTBALL BRAVES...

Coaches Billy Stone and Jim Spink anxiously eye the action.

The Bradley defense blitzes the opposition.

A HOPEFUL BEGINNING FOR BRADLEY FOOTBALL FADES TO 3—6—1 SEASON

Football . . . we had a bad year . . . key injuries . . .
Coach Stone's week-to-week patchwork to keep eleven men on the field . . . a young team . . . an aerial game that provided wide-open football . . . a rally, a score . . .
a letdown, a game lost . . . with the season ending 3-6-1.

Selinger rolls out.

The cup blocking holds up long enough for Selinger to get away another aerial.

Tackle Jack Wiech, chin strap swinging free, provides protection for a Selinger pass in the Eastern Illinois game.

Halfback Jim Ulrich steps back into a down-and-out pattern for a reception.

Both teams are down as the Braves' offense is ready to go.

THE HOMELESS BRAVES...

Halfback Mike Dafferner hurls through a pile of bodies for a short gain.

A Western Player is brought to the turf.

FIGHT INJURY . . . INEXPERIENCE

B. U. huddles to plan another play.

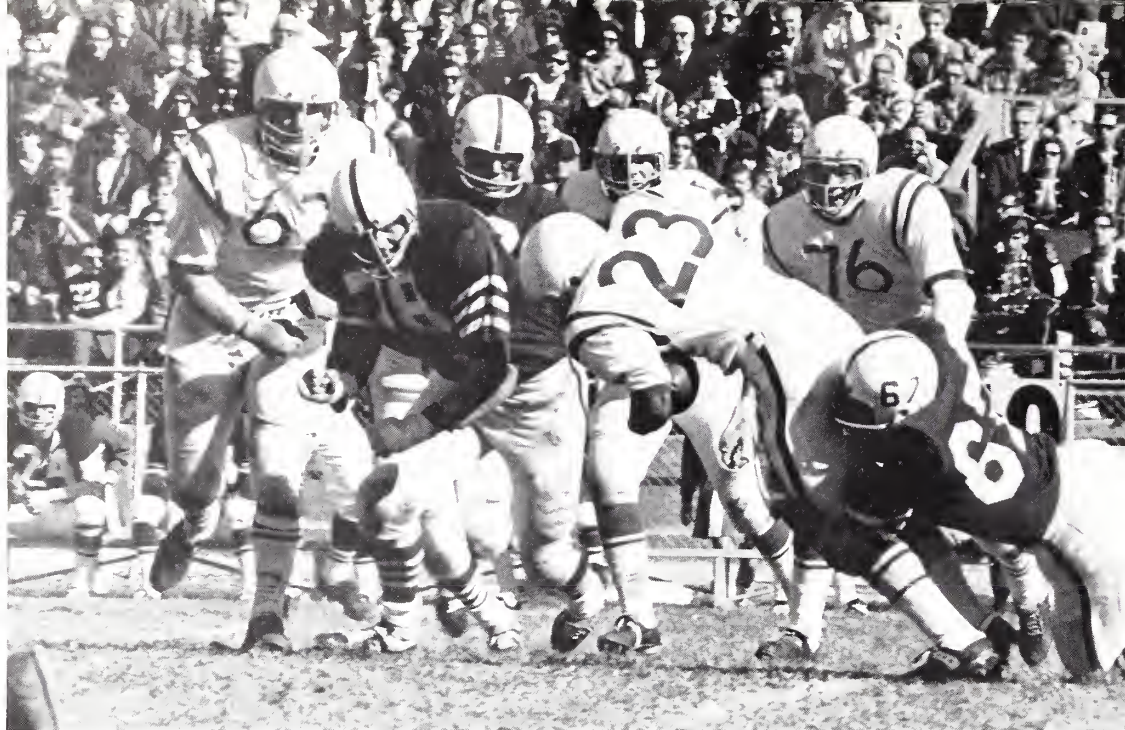

Mike Bresko pulls out and leads Dafferner around left end with pursuit piled up by the Bradley Line.

The Braves pull down a Western Illinois Leatherneck.

Rick Hartter makes the tackle as Mike Bresko comes in after a punt.

The ball is snapped by center Steve Garrison, as Sellinger backs away to begin another play.

THE FORWARD PASS DOMINATES BRADLEY'S OFFENSIVE DRIVE

Good protection gives quarterback Larry Sellinger time to pick receivers.

The Bradley football team and aerially-minded coach, Billy Stone, combined to provide fans with a 'wide open' game at all times. A young team, with hustle and spirit, gave the faithful many exuberant moments with a 'hard-nose', rally-filled season. Almost always outmanned, our 36-strong squad made up in poise and determination what they lacked numerically.

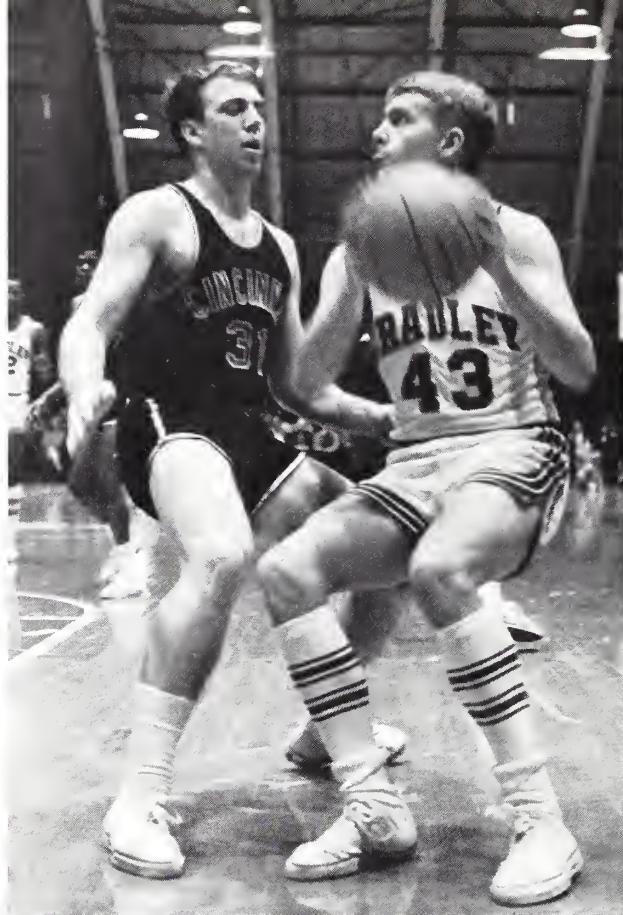

Mike Dafferner breaks into the secondary off the right side of the line.

A committee of one greets Tom Whitney after he catches another pass.

Bob Swigriss moves the ball into a corner at Kiel Auditorium.

Dave Lundstrom ponders "to shoot or not to shoot" against Cincy.

L. C. Bowen puts the final touches on a fast break in the Drake game.

Greg Berry applies the breaks before making his move in the Memphis State game.

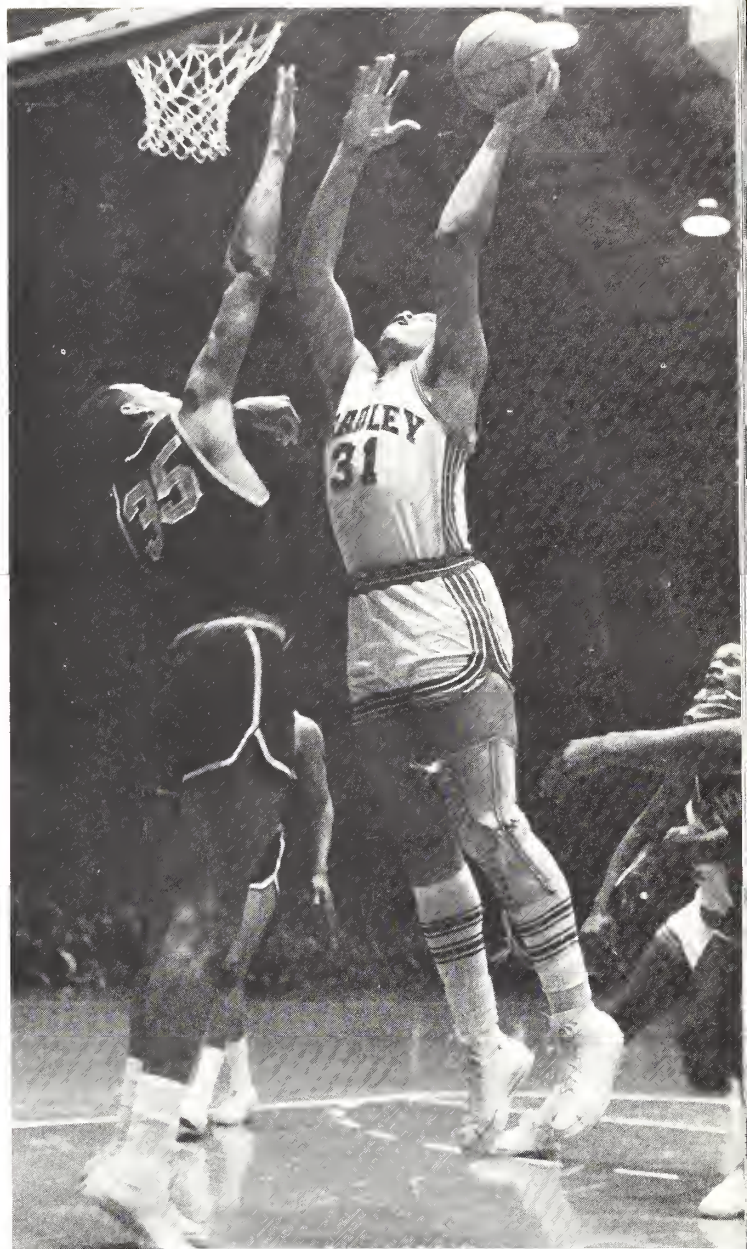

Wonderful Willie goes above the "madding crowd" to tip in two.

Big Joe scores again against Cincinnati.

BRAVES UNDEFEATED IN THE FIELDHOUSE

A 20—8 record . . . with the story told at home where the Braves were undefeated. Facing the top teams in the country . . . the big ones: Louisville . . . Cincinnati . . . losing Willie at the halfway point . . . and Greg Berry finishing in style . . . Swigris and Lundstrom interchangeable . . . while the names remain Smith, Bowen and Allen. Finally, the double overtime at St. Louis (100—99) for second in the Valley and a trip to NIT.

Willie Betts jumps to block a would-be Wichita score.

Great Expectations were piped on the trip West.

Tripping the light fantastic Al Smith threads in for a layup against Wichita.

Reserve forward Greg Berry came off the bench to add punch to the front line.

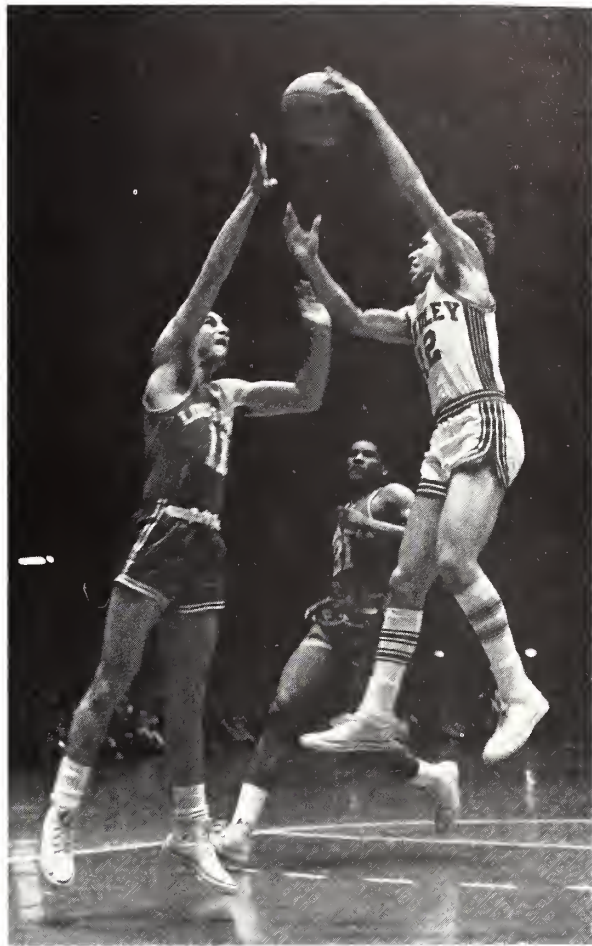

Joe Allen lays in an easy two against Murray State.

High off the floor, Bob Swigris passes inside over the futile Louisville opposition.

BASKETBALL IS KING AS VALLEY FEVER REPLACES ASIAN FLU

Dave Lundstrom is poised in the air for a long jump shot.

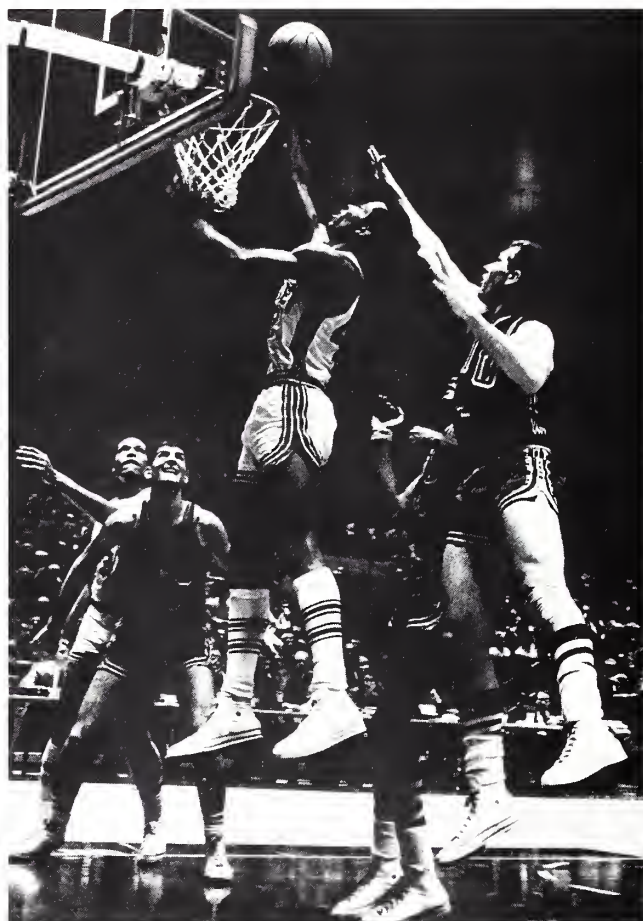

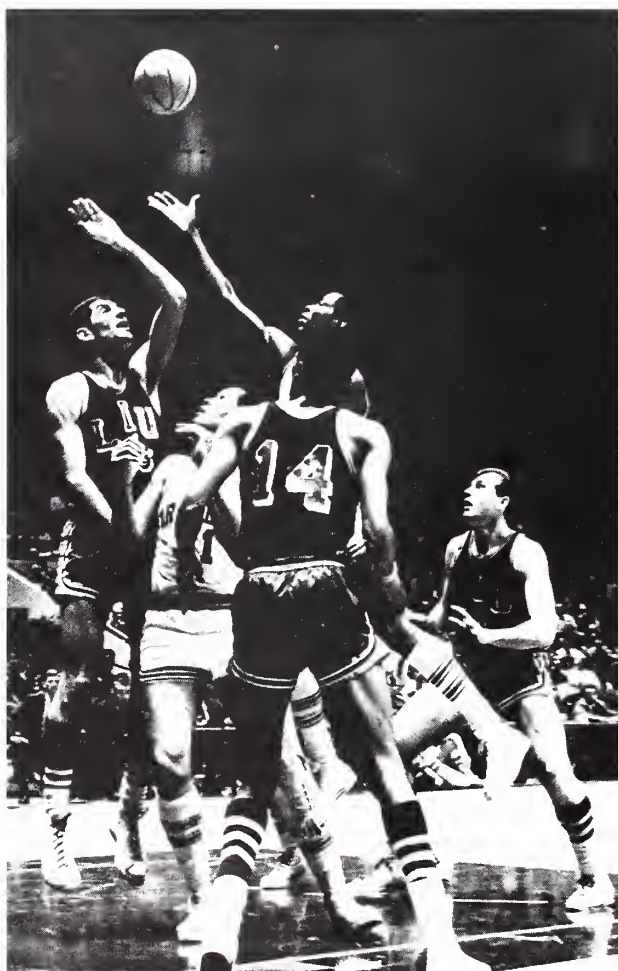

Al Smith gets the needed step against Louisville's Butch Beard.

Smitty stops, jumps, and turns in midair for a jump shot at the free throw line.

The ball attracted a crowd in the zone as L.C. shoots again.

No longer allowed to dunk, L.C. does the next best thing with a drop-in, driving lay-up.

Three arms are trying to block the shot, but Smitty scores again with a fake and a drive.

L.C. Shoots a long jump shot over Joe's screen at the new Madison Square Garden.

WHEN MORE IS DONE...

NIT in NYC... LIU shooting 61 percent in the first game... and the Braves lost 80—77... a game that was tied four times in the last five minutes. A season ends with... Quando plus fit quam fieri debet, videtur etiam illud feri quod faciendum est (When more is done than should be done, that which should have been done will be considered done).

A base-line drive got Berry two points with a left-handed lay-up against Long Island University.

A happy team gathers after the North Texas game.

Shooting over his man in the Cincinnati game, Joe shows he can hit from outside.

TRIPLE OVERTIME

GREG BERRY . . . smooth moves . . . with the soft touch from outside and the driving break to the boards . . . proving at Tulsa he had what it took, as four years paid off.

BOB SWIGRIS . . . the 'seadog' . . . his job: to get the ball down court and work it to the big men inside . . . and when defense sagged, he hit over the top . . . the man whose haircut always made him seem in a hurry . . . and who always was.

JOE ALLEN . . . leading the country in field goal percentage . . . All-MVC . . . 'late' entry to the Olympic trials . . . acknowledged wherever he played as one of the best pivot men in college ball. The one-legged wonder left surprised opponents as he started, led, and scored on the fast break in the Braves' running game. Big Joe . . . team leader and high point man for the 1967-1968 season.

Against North Texas State L.C. pays little attention to his injured right knee ligaments.

Smitty shows concentration and singleness of purpose in a shot against Drake.

Seadog goes off balance to thread through the North Texas defense.

Observation . . .

and encouragement,

With "B" Club help, the cheerleaders rise to new heights.

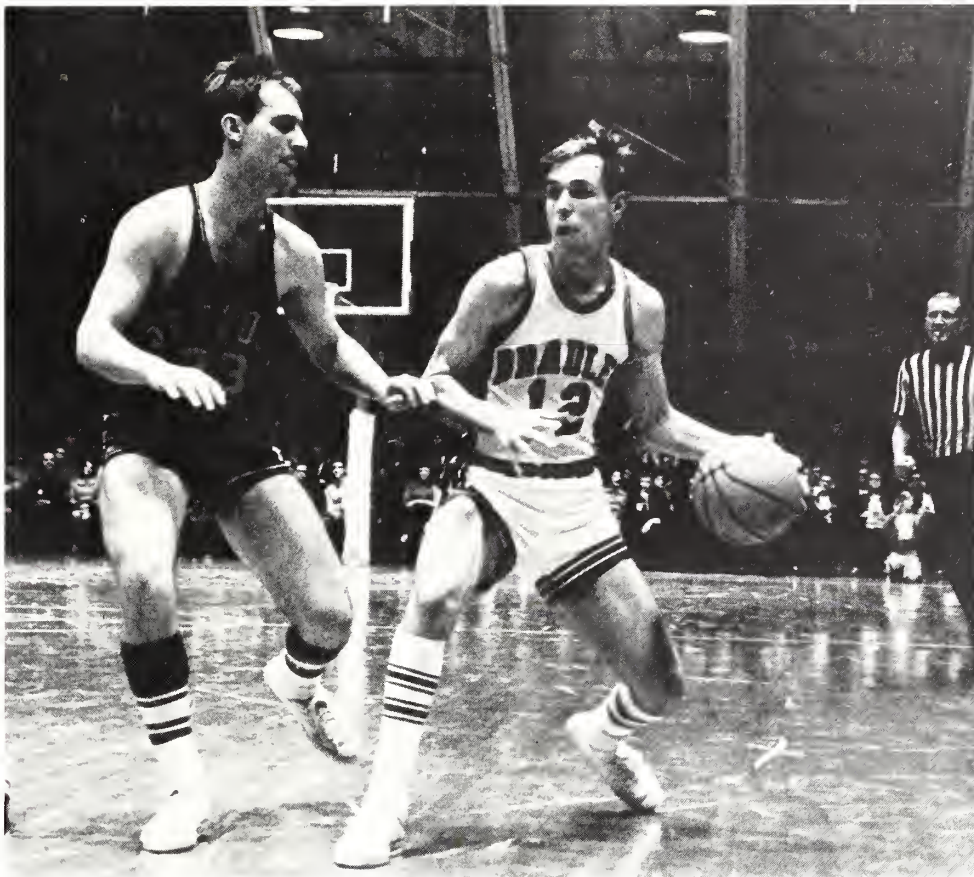

"By Golly!"

BRADLEY RUNS TONIGHT!

Groups of people . . . walking toward the fieldhouse in twos and twenties . . .
vapor streams rising above them in the cold night . . . as the talk turns to . . .
BASKETBALL. Inside, the crowd begins to fill the 'snake pit' and student apathy seems as far removed as the books left behind for a few hours . . . the lexicon changes to . . .
grabbing glass . . . new dunk rules . . .
and will Bradley run tonight?

Bob Swigris starts a drive during the St. Cloud State game.

The cheerleaders rise in unison as Bradley scores again.

A long jump shot by Al Smith was the downfall of zone defenses across the country.

Willie leaps high to lay in two against Memphis State.

Drake learns that you can't hold a good man down.

NET TEAM COMPILES 16—6 MARK, BEST IN 10 YEARS

Tennis coach Tom Coker happily contemplates the past and coming season.

Doug Ivers in a both-feet-off-the-ground backhand.

The '67 tennis team with a record of 16—6, the best in ten years, won the Chicago Invitational Tournament; tied for 3rd in the MVC, and took 4th in the Northeast Missouri Tournament. With Ivers, Kennedy, Toburen, and Buente as top men, BU for the first time placed finalists in the MVC. Coach Tom Coker has reason to be happy with the backbone of his team returning for '68 play, and the new indoor racquet club giving the team a place to practice when spring snow covers the Bradley Park courts.

Moving into a backhand is Bradley's No. 1 ceded player, Doug Ivers.

DEFENSE IS STRONG POINT IN 17-5-1 BASEBALL SEASON

Defensively strong, last year's baseball Braves were the best team since the 1962 MVC champs. The breaks in two games, and two rained-out double headers were the difference between the respectable 17-5-1 season and the coveted championship.

Coach Leo Schroll heads the Bradley baseball team.

Mike McDonald flies past 3rd on his way home against Western Illinois.

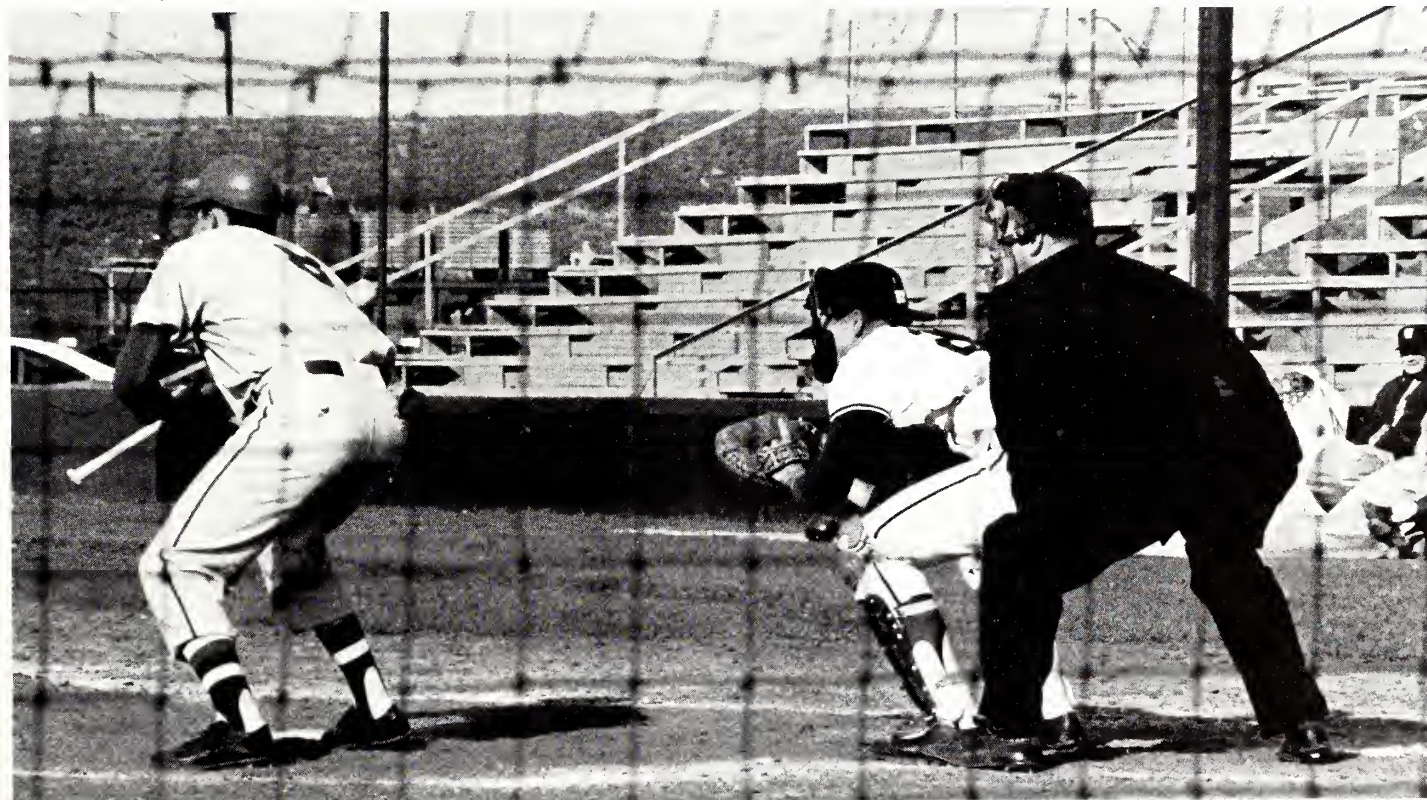

"Come on, boxcars, Daddy needs a new pair of shoes."

Dick Baldwin, the honorary captain and Most Valuable Player, signed with the Washington Senators after graduation. Other team standouts were Bill Reising as pitcher, sophomore Hal Smith at 1st base, Mike McDonald who made the transition from infield to outfield, and Frank Mavetz as the team's leading batter. Losing only three men to graduation, Coach Leo Schrall hopes for an even better season this year.

SOPHOMORE LUNDSTROM LEADS B.U. GOLFERS

Coach Jim Spink's golf team last year compiled a 10—13—1 season dual meet varsity record while the freshmen went 4—4. A 4th in the Illinois College Tournament and a 6th in the MVC ended the season. Captain Dave Lundstrom paced the varsity with a season average of 76 and a record of 14—8, while Roger Smith led the freshmen with a 5—3 record and a 78 average.

An all-underclass cross country team came out with a winning season of 6—5, taking a fifth in the Illinois Inter Collegiate and a fourth in the MVC meet. Injuries curtailed the team's activities, with number one runner Bill Johnson missing three meets. With two juniors, five sophomores, and one freshman returning from this year's team, and the new MVC ruling that allows freshman to participate in varsity competition, Coach Schoof is looking forward to a promising 1968 season.

Vaulter Don Slota goes 'bottoms up' as Harry Truitt waits to catch the pole.

A year of broken records marked what Coach Jake Schoof called "one of the better teams in recent years." Cliff Irons, voted the most outstanding track athlete, and John Vander Wagen, the javelin thrower who broke the 1926 record, led the team to victory in one triangular meet and second place in two others while compiling a 4—7 dual meet record.

Tom Carney leads the swimming team in total points and placed first in the MVC meet in the 100-yard butterfly.

SWIMMERS 9—3 FOR YEAR

Coach Spink's swimming team . . . led by sophomore Tom Carney . . . captained by Kip Sullivan . . . raced to a 9—3 season for the best record in ten years. Six school records fell . . . placing second in the Viking Olympics, the Illinois State Private College and MVC meets.

LIVING UNITS

From columned stateliness to modernistic melange . . .
1400 call fraternity and sorority houses "home" for nine months of the year . . . and the few-square-feet multiples take on the shape and form of those within . . . to become . . . more than groups of people living together . . . but "living units" that paradoxically add to . . . yet detract from . . .
and finally are the way of life for . . . GREEKS.

LIVING UNITS IN THE GREEK TRADITION

A week of rush ends . . .

WEEK OF RUSH ENDS WHEN BIDS ARE RECEIVED

with anticipated acceptance . . .

of a new beginning.

Fraternity rush ends at the field house with the traditional Calling-Out ceremony.

The first week fraternity rush holds forth . . . coats and ties . . . immaculately clean houses, that will soon be kept that way by today's rushees . . . the smiles, questions, and continuous dialogue . . . all culminated at Calling-Out when each house claims its own . . .

The second week and sorority rush commences . . . heels and tea . . . queues of smiling faces . . . the skits . . . the narrowing down, as appraisals begin on both sides . . . preferentials, and the final wait before the wonder-dreadful moment of receiving bids . . . now they are Greeks.

Just prior to Calling-Out, fraternity rushees sign sheets declaring bids they will accept.

FRATERNITY RUSH ENDS AT CALLING-OUT

Rushee Bill Murray listens to a Sigma Alpha Epsilon pitchman.

SIGMA CHI HOLDS THEIR HOMECOMING

The Sigma Chis enjoy Homecoming so much that they have one of their own . . . with pledge cheerleaders and marching band for comic relief . . . the Sigs beat ZBT 6—2 . . . and Peg Schroeder was crowned Queen.

Mothers knew there would be some changes made at college, but would Mrs. Le Page, Marelllo, Armbuster, Voight, and Wolff recognize their "sons" here?

Half of Jim and all of Steve are raptly attentive of Sig Homecoming Queen Peg Schroeder holding her loving cup and long stem white roses.

A large crowd watched the game as Sigma Chi beat ZBT 6-2.

Cindy Grieves holds her Raggedy Ann doll, trophy, and flowers as the LCA pledges receive the PJ race trophy.

An  $\Delta E\pi$  sprints home a winner in one of the early heats.

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA WINS ANNUAL RACE

The Lambda Chi pajama races . . . run on a chilly night . . . matched by the self-admittedly "ice cream cold" PJ Queen Cindy Grieves of Gamma Phi Beta . . . as LCA captured their own main event .

From left to right, TKE, TEΦ, ΔΥ, and ΣΝ are off to a running start.

The final race shows LCA off to the lead that won them the trophy.

The sisters of Pi Beta Phi sing Warm Spot and When the Saints Go Marching In to win first place in Pan-Fra Sing.

COLOR . . .
BEAUTY . . .
STYLE . . .
GRACE . . .
ALL HARMONIZE
IN ANOTHER
PAN-FRA SING

An All-Campus Queen, 1st place in Pan-Fra Sing, Greek Goddess, and the Marathon winner were all Pi Phi's as Greek Week progressed . . . LCA and Pi Phi took honors in Pan-Fra Sing . . . with ZBT, Sig Ep, Gamma Phi and Sigma Kappa following . . . with Rick Newman of TKE and Sandy McGuire chosen the godliest greek bodies . . . Steve Scherer of LCA and Cookie Cutter were the marathon winners . . . and the slave auction saw everything bartered from breakfast in bed to Spanish serenades . . . ATOM (Aid To Our Men) Day saw girls opening doors and being generally gentlemanly as role reversal was the order of the hour . . . and the Dating Game met matchless mates, with an evening 'on the town' for the winners . . . the picnic and street dance added the closing touches to Greek Week.

Lambda Chi wins the Fraternity half of Pan-Fra with All Hail and It Was a Very Good Year.

ZBT digs in and PULLS in the tug-of-war contest at Bradley Park.

GODS, AUCTION, AND GAMES MARK GREEK WEEK

Rich Newman and Sandy McGuire are chosen Greek God and Goddess.

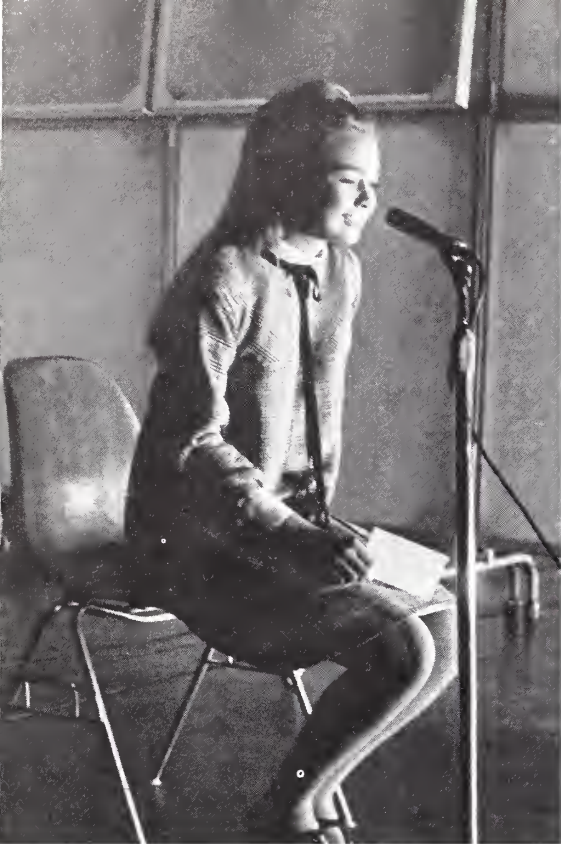

Cookie Cutter accepts the winner's trophy for the marathon as Kristy Burk, who placed second, looks on.

The Sig Eps carry their Greek God candidate, Jim Hammerlund, and Amy Cesal to the Quad.

Marty Foster of Pi Phi ponders a pointed question on Greek Week's Dating Game.

THE DATING GAME BRADLEY STYLE

The Greek Week auction . . . with the benefits to charity . . . saw fraternities and sororities selling services and parties . . . to the highest bidders . . . as "slavery" was once again in vogue. . . and later the Dating Game . . . as eligible Greeks competed in the perilous process of date selection . . . sight unseen.

Displaying the "footwork that made her famous," Marty Foster avoids Wally Hall.

Wally Hall, right, answers a question as Jim Forte and Jerry Denson listen.

Delta Zetas in boaters of pink and green ponder their fate at the auction.

GREEK WEEK AUCTION SELLS TO HIGH BIDDERS

Bereted brothers of Theta Xi vary from contemplative to incognito as bids are made on their services.

The dressed from sacks (sic.) girls of Sigma Kappa are momentarily amused before the gavel falls.

Abby Hans sings (?) as the military (?) ZBT jug band entertains in the quad.

PHI KAPPA TAU

LIVING UNITS CALLED DORMS

Dormitories . . . living in unity in places called "home" nine months of the year. The small room of party favors, classic cards, beer mugs, a bulletin board of memories . . . the closet floor covered with shoes . . . and the desk with neglected books. A place to gather in groups or just quietly be alone.

In the quiet of his room each freshman may pursue the quest of knowledge, uninterrupted?

And you should see the one I was fixed up with!

The South will rise again!

And this is the target Mr. Tell.

But this is the way John Lennon's guru does it!

Rooms take on the personality of their inhabitants.

Peacefully settled for a brief moment, attention seems divided.

CHRISTMAS COLLAGE . . .

The dorm Christmas party . . .
for Peoria's underprivileged children complete with Christmas play and that well-padded, jolly fat man . . .
with presents for those who might have gone without.
"The spirit of Christmas yet to come"
is realized in the faces of those who can believe, for a while longer, that there is a Santa Claus.

Ice cream always tastes better when you wear a little of it.

"All I want for Christmas is my two front (?) teeth."

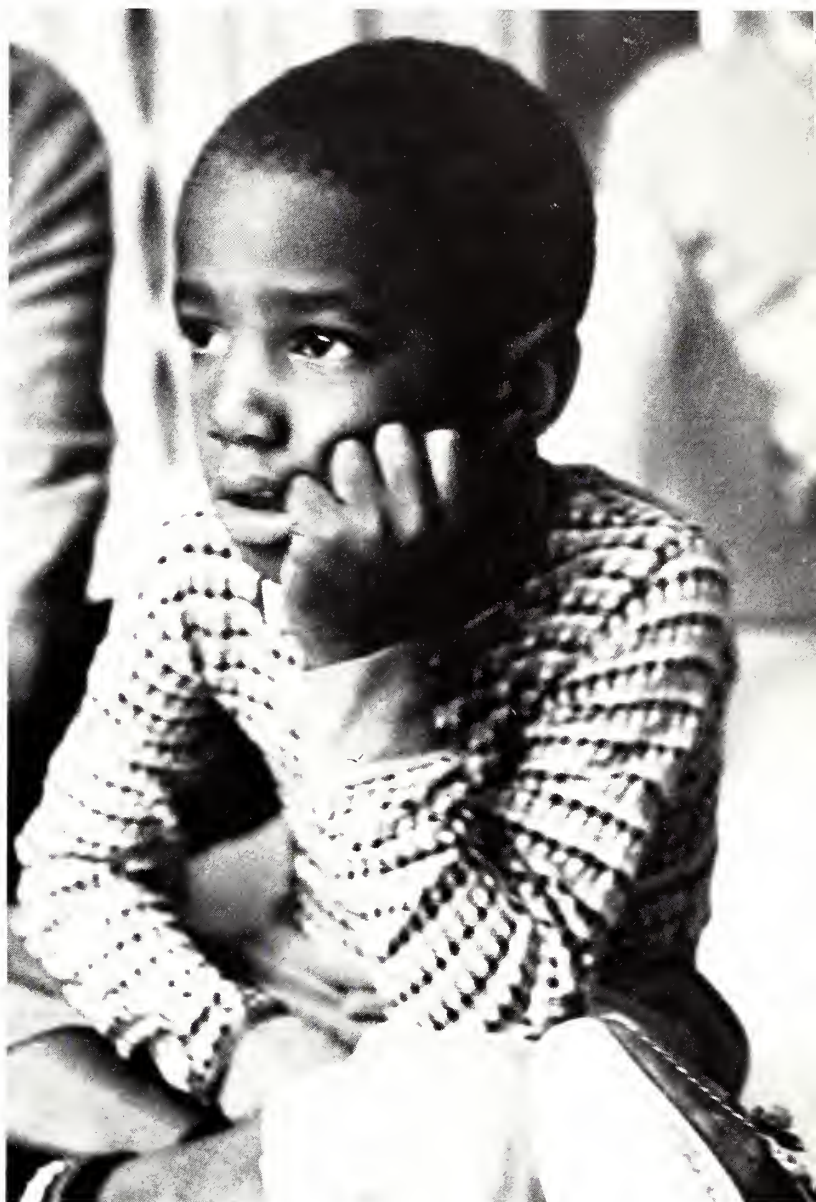

The spirit of Christmas is just quiet happiness . . .

Engrossed in the play, this young man chews a finger in contemplation.

Santa gives a present to an obviously happy youngster.

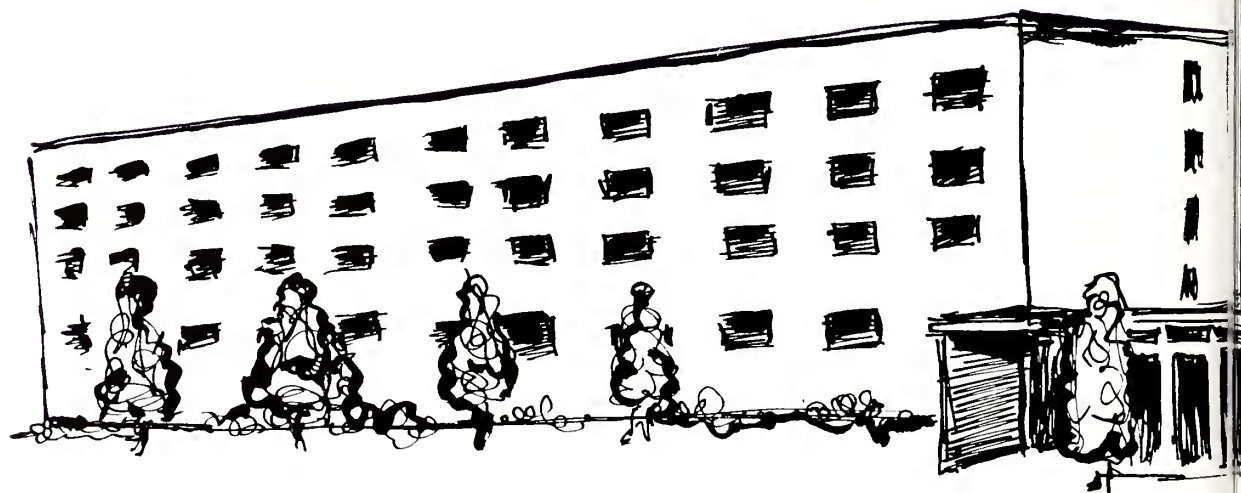

Every little girl dreams of a new doll for Christmas.

INTER-VARSITY

MUGS

THE ADMINISTRATIVE LINE-UP

DR. TALMAN W. VanARSDALE, JR., President of Bradley University

THE BIG MUG . . . harbinger of good news from the East
... an authoritative figurehead with a boyish manner.
Call him anything but Curly, an immaculate desk belies his profuse duties. Employing an Open Door Policy for students and trustees alike
... he harbors a scholarly knowledge of Romantic poetry and remains a pragmatic optimist and a symbol of the University as it should be.

ARTHUR G. HAUSSLER, Executive Vice-President

"Frenchie" . . . an integral part of the system of checks and balance. An effusive representative to the Moms and Dads, he has become as synonymous with Bradley as basketball, and somehow just as important.

Dr. Kuchel . . . administrator of the academics . . . his word is worth a thousand pictures. A dignified archetype of the black-gowned, he competes with the image by a quick grin as he solves the problems of wish fulfillment.

E. RUSSELL KUCHEL, Vice-President for Academic Affairs

ORVILLE NOTHDURFT, Dean of Admissions and Records

LESLIE H. TUCKER, Dean of Students

HUGH MacMILLAN, Director of Plant Operation

GEORGE R. BECK, Treasurer and Comptroller

An undisciplined mind is not free but enslaved to every passing whim and impulse, and doomed to idiosyncratic triviality.

Worthwhile originality, whether it be the masterpiece or world-shaking discovery of genius, or the ingenious inventiveness of a lesser talent, or even the run-of-the-mill freshness of personality and outlook of a person of average ability who is completely himself, is the product of discipline and spontaneity, mental structure and texture.

TOMORROW AND ANOTHER DAY
... THE 'HOLE ENTIRE STORY
... OF MOMENTS

Another day is moments . . . an aggregate, added one to another. Comprised of . . . the jarring moment when the alarm goes after an hour's stolen sleep . . . the endless moment of embarrassed silence when you are called on and don't know . . . the excited moment when you see that special person walking toward you, and you smile and say "hi" . . . the 'moment of truth' as you wait to be delighted or disillusioned by the results of a test . . . the crucial moment when you decide to kiss or be kissed, and the lingering moment when thought becomes reality . . . the tired-eyed moment studying, when the page begins to drift away . . . and the last moment before sleep, as you plan tomorrow and think back on another day . . . this is the 'hole entire story.

A black and white photograph of a squirrel clinging to a tree trunk. The squirrel is positioned on the left side of the frame, facing right. Its body is pressed against the rough, textured bark of the tree. The tree trunk runs vertically through the center of the image. The background is a continuation of the tree bark, creating a sense of depth and texture. The lighting is dramatic, with strong highlights and shadows that emphasize the textures of the squirrel's fur and the tree bark.

"And this is all that is left of it! Only a moment;
a moment of strength, of romance, of glamor—of youth! . . . A flick of sunshine upon a strange shore, the time to remember, the time for a sigh, and—good-by—Night—Good-by . . ."

Joseph Conrad
